Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing on behalf of the Local Governing Body at Wyvern College and Magna Learning Partnership to tell you that Mr Andrew Bazen, Headteacher has resigned from his position at Wyvern College. I have accepted his resignation and agreed that he should be released immediately. Whilst he has enjoyed working with the students and staff at Wyvern, he does not feel that the headship of this school has been the right role for him and will be taking some time to consider his next steps. Mr Bazen has also asked that the following statement be communicated to you:

‘I have reflected on my headship of Wyvern College and although I have enjoyed my time here I have decided that this was not the right role for me and am taking some time to consider my next steps. I wish the school and you all the very best for the future.’

This news will come as a surprise to you but inevitably you will wish to know how the leadership of the school will be addressed going forward so that the education and welfare of your sons is unaffected by the change. One of the benefits of being part of a Multi Academy Trust is that in situations such as this we are able to draw on the expertise and experience of the leaders we have in our partner schools. I am pleased to let you know that Mr Jonathan Curtis, Headteacher of Sarum Academy will lead Wyvern College for an interim period to last until at least the end of the academic year. He will work closely with Mr Jeffries, Deputy Headteacher and the rest of the leadership team and he will spend the majority of each week in the school. Mr Curtis has already spent some time in Wyvern College working with staff and students as part of our development work in Magna Learning Partnership.

Please rest assured that our first priority is the boys at Wyvern College. We will work tirelessly and diligently to ensure that they continue to achieve the progress and outcomes they deserve.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in contact via Mrs J Wardley, Headteacher’s PA (jwardley@wyverncollege.wilts.sch.uk)

Yours sincerely

Sarah Busby
Executive Headteacher
